PARTICIPANTS:

“The program helped me to build confidence, overcome shyness, improve my skills in job hunting.”

“Thanks very much for your program. I don't know what I'd do without this kind of help.”

“After 23 years of never being out of work, the prospect of finding a new job in a new country was daunting. The “Job Search for New Canadians” program was a lifeline to me. The program taught the skills that are required to help find employment. I found that the friendly and relaxed atmosphere combined with the professional approach from all the staff at Naylor-M^CLeod has made job-hunting fun. The support from other course members has been great and has formed the base of a substantial networking portfolio. Job-hunting has turned from a daunting prospect into a lot of fun.”
